Gruha Lakshmi Scheme – Detailed Policy Framework

1. Background and Rationale

The Gruha Lakshmi Scheme is conceived as a flagship social welfare initiative aimed at recognizing and strengthening the economic role of women as heads of households. It addresses systemic gender inequalities and aims to ensure financial inclusion, particularly among economically weaker sections across urban and rural Karnataka.

2. Objectives

- Provide assured monthly financial support to women heads of households.
- Promote gender equity and financial independence.
- Enhance household-level economic resilience.
- Strengthen social protection mechanisms in Karnataka.

3. Eligibility Criteria

Criteria	Details
Residency	Must be a permanent resident of Karnataka
Gender	Woman identified as head of household
Income	Belonging to economically weaker section
Exclusion	Not an income taxpayer or govt employee

4. Financial Benefits

Eligible beneficiaries shall receive ₹2,000 per month through Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT). The assistance is intended to support essential household needs and improve quality of life.

5. Implementation Strategy

The scheme will be implemented through a decentralized governance framework involving Gram Panchayats, Urban Local Bodies, and State Departments. Digital platforms will be used for beneficiary identification, verification, and fund disbursement.

6. Monitoring and Evaluation

A state-level monitoring committee will oversee implementation. Key performance indicators (KPIs) will include beneficiary coverage, fund utilization, and impact on household income levels.

7. Expected Outcomes

- Increased financial security for women.
- Reduction in poverty and vulnerability.
- Enhanced participation of women in economic decision-making.

8. Conclusion

The Gruha Lakshmi Scheme represents a transformative step towards inclusive development by placing women at the center of economic empowerment.
